All contributions made to the scheme will be made by deduction from net salary with tax relief claimed automatically by the pension company and the employee or Executive in the case of higher rate taxpayers.

7.2 The Company shall not have any liability to make any contributions to the Stakeholder Pension Scheme except in order to comply with any legal requirements.

8. Medical insurance

8.1 If the Executive satisfies the standard cover conditions, the Company shall subscribe on behalf of and for the benefit of the Executive to a scheme providing benefits on such terms and conditions as the Company shall determine from time to time for medical and surgical treatment with such reputable provider as the Company may select from time to time.

8.2 If the Executive, by notice in writing to the Company, so elects, provided the Executive's spouse satisfies the standard cover conditions, the Company shall arrange for the spouse of the Executive to be admitted to membership of such scheme as is referred to in clause 8.1.

9. Insurance

9.1 The Executive will be included (at the Company's expense) in the Company's group life insurance scheme, which insures the Executive's life for an amount equal to three times the Executive's annual salary. In the event of the Executive's death this sum will be paid under the terms of a discretionary trust.

10. Holidays

10.1 In addition to the usual public holidays, the Executive shall be entitled to 25 working days' paid holiday in every complete year of employment excluding normal bank and public holidays. Board Approval shall be required before the Executive takes any such holiday (and the Board may decline to give such approval if in its opinion the time or times proposed by the Executive are not convenient).

10.2 Holiday entitlement not taken during the year to which the same relates may not, save with Board Approval, be carried forward.

10.3 Holiday entitlement shall be deemed to accrue at the rate of 2.08 working days for each complete month of employment. The Executive shall be entitled to receive 1/260th of the Fixed Salary at the rate for the time being current for each working day's holiday entitlement accrued but not taken as at the date on which the Appointment terminates.

11. Incapacity

11.1 If at any time during the Appointment the Executive shall, by virtue of mental or physical ill-health or accident, be prevented from performing all or substantially all his duties hereunder or from attending at his normal place of work ("Incapacity"), he shall (insofar as he is then able) promptly notify the Company of such fact and provide to the Company such evidence of such Incapacity and the cause thereof and such other information relating thereto as the Company may from time to time require.

11.2 Incapacity shall not operate so as to prejudice the Executive's continuing right to receive the Fixed Salary and other benefits to which he is entitled pursuant to this agreement unless Incapacity subsists either for a continuous period of 26 or more weeks in any period of 12 months or for periods which, in any one period of 12 months, aggregate 26 or more weeks, in which event (upon the expiry of such period of 26 weeks) the Executive shall have no further entitlement to the Fixed Salary and other benefits as aforesaid and accordingly any further payment or provision of all or any of the same shall be at the discretion of the Company unless and to the extent that the Company receives payments in respect of the Executive under PHI Cover. All such payments shall be inclusive of any statutory sick pay payable.

- 11.3 Whilst any Incapacity subsists, the Company may deduct from any payments (whether mandatory or discretionary) which it is proposing to make to the Executive all state benefits which the Executive would be entitled to receive by virtue of such Incapacity.
- 11.4 Where the Incapacity of the Executive has or may have been occasioned by the actionable negligence of a third party in respect of which damages are or may be recoverable, the Executive shall forthwith notify the Company of that fact and of any claim, compromise, settlement or judgment made or awarded in connection therewith and shall give to the Company all such particulars of all such matters as the Company may reasonably require and shall refund to the Company any damages that are awarded and paid for loss of earnings for the period of the Incapacity provided that such payment does not exceed the amount of damages or compensation actually recovered by the Executive under that head of loss, compromise, settlement or judgment after meeting a rateable share of any irrecoverable legal costs payable by him. In no event shall such payment exceed the payments actually made by the Company to the Executive in respect of the period of Incapacity.
- 11.5 If the Executive is or may be suffering from a mental disorder and he is admitted to hospital for treatment (voluntarily or otherwise) of that condition or an order is made by a court of competent jurisdiction in matters concerning mental capacity or disorder for the Executive's detention or for the appointment of a receiver, curator bonis or other person to exercise powers with respect to his property or affairs ("Curatorship"), his appointment to all executive or other offices in or on behalf of the Group shall be suspended for the duration of his treatment, detention or Curatorship (as the case may be), and the Company shall be at liberty to appoint a substitute. This shall be without prejudice to the Executive's entitlement, if any, to receive Fixed Salary and other benefits under clause 11.2 above or the power of the Company to terminate this Agreement under clause 15.

12. Confidentiality

- 12.1 The Executive shall not either during the Appointment (otherwise than in the proper performance of his duties) or at any time thereafter, save with Board Approval, divulge to any person or use for the benefit of himself or any other person (other than the Group) any Confidential Information (as defined in clause 12.2).

- 12.3 The Executive shall not during the continuation of the Appointment make (otherwise than for the benefit of the Company or any Group Company) any notes, memoranda, tape recordings, films, photographs, plans, drawings or any form of record relating to any Confidential Information within the scope of the business of the Company or any Group Company or concerning any of the dealings or affairs of the Company or any Group Company.

13.1 In view of the fact that the business of the Company and of any Group Company consists in part in the development and exploitation of inventions, techniques and methods and other intellectual property and that it is the Executive's responsibility to further the interests of the Company and any Group Company, the Executive agrees that if at any time during the Appointment (whether before or after the date hereof but after he became an employee of the Company) the Executive makes or discovers or participates in the making or discovery of any Intellectual Property (and whether or not made or discovered in the course of his employment by the Company) in connection with or in any way affecting or relating to the business of the Company or of any Group Company or capable of being used or adapted for use therein or in connection therewith, the Executive shall:

13.1.1 forthwith disclose to the Company full details of the Intellectual Property;

13.1.2 the Intellectual Property shall belong to and be the absolute property of the Company or such Group Company as the Company may nominate for the purpose;

14. Summary Termination

14.1 The Company may, by written notice to the Executive, terminate the Appointment summarily and forthwith at any time without prior notice or payment in lieu of notice if the Executive shall:

- 14.3 If the Company terminates the Appointment pursuant to clause 14.1 then the Executive shall not have any claim against the Company by virtue thereof but such termination shall not operate so as to prejudice any claim which the Company or any other Group Company may then (or subsequently) have against the Executive.
